

CEP Magazine – December 2018 Risk vs. Growth

by Jennifer L. Kennedy, BA

Jennifer Kennedy (jenniferkennedy@barberinstitute.org) is Vice President, Governance, Risk Management, & Compliance at Barber National Institute in Erie, PA.

- linkedin.com/in/jennifer-kennedy-b8671057

In compliance, I always have worries as my business grows. It's the "prepare for the worst" side of my brain that acknowledges that growth can be fraught with risk. I want to make sure that my organization can sustain what we're already doing while also focusing on growth. That's the balancing act — focusing on B (growth) without losing sight of A (current operations).

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login