On occasion, I get an email or message on LinkedIn from someone who thanks me for something I have done. There are a lot of people who know me that I do not know. It can be unsettling. I feel unappreciative, unaware, unknowledgeable or “un” something. I just got one of these messages on LinkedIn today from Julie Rys-Sours. She said, “I know you don't know me but...” and went on to say something very nice. These messages often start out with, “You don't know me but....” I have something to tell Julie. Frankly I have something to tell all of you.
