

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 2, Number 22. November 21, 2019 Dealing with plastics in the supply chain

By Sascha Matuszak

Two news items touch on the problem of plastic waste clogging the oceans and how to remove plastics from the supply chain or find other more innovative solutions. The first are attempts at “reverse logistics” using plastics waste found in the oceans and recycling it into raw materials for other goods.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login