

CEP Magazine – January 2018 Why didn't anyone say anything?

By Art Weiss, JD, CCEP-F, CCEP-I

Art Weiss (art_weiss@tamko.com) is Chief Compliance and Ethics Officer at TAMKO Building Products in Joplin, MO.

An employee at my organization popped his head into my office last week and asked me if I had seen the news coverage of the allegations of sexual harassment levied against a major Hollywood producer. When I told him I had, he asked a very simple but nearly impossible question: Why didn't anyone say anything? He immediately followed that with a comment about our sexual harassment training, which we had recently completed. He guessed that since the accused company was relatively small, they didn't think they needed such training.
