

Report on Medicare Compliance Volume 30, Number 41. November 15, 2021

OIG Revises Self-Disclosure Protocol, Increases Settlement Minimums

By Nina Youngstrom

The HHS Office of Inspector General (OIG) said Nov. 8 it has revised the Self-Disclosure Protocol (SDP), doubling the minimum amount required for an admission ticket and clarifying a few other things.^[1] This is the first update since 2013 to the SDP, which invites providers to self-report evidence of potential fraud to OIG in exchange for reduced penalties and avoiding a corporate integrity agreement.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login