

42 U.S. Code § 18933

Software security and authentication

(a) Vulnerabilities in open source software

The Director shall assign severity metrics to identified vulnerabilities with open source software and produce voluntary guidance to assist the entities that maintain open source software repositories to discover and mitigate vulnerabilities.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login