

Report on Medicare Compliance Volume 29, Number 18. May 11, 2020 How Hospitals May Be Overpaid for Outpatient Services Provided to Inpatients

By Nina Youngstrom

In a new report,^[1] the HHS Office of Inspector General said Medicare overpaid $11.7 million for nonphysician outpatient services in connection with inpatient admissions in 2016 and 2017.^[2]

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login