

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 11. May 28, 2020

Apple may shift some production to India under PLI scheme

By Sascha Matuszak

The Indian government announced a productivity-linked incentives (PLI) scheme^[1] to attract electronics manufacturers to shift production to India. Apple Inc. is reportedly ready to shift some production from China to India^[2] that may boost Indian exports by around USD 40 billion.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login