

Report on Patient Privacy Volume 20, Number 6. June 11, 2020 Patient Privacy Court Case: June 2020

By Wogai Mohmand

Stacey Lavette Hendricks was sentenced to 48 months in prison for aggravated identity theft and wire fraud in Florida.^[1] On May 5, 2019, U.S. Secret Service agents learned from a confidential source that Hendricks, who worked at a medical marijuana clinic in Mount Dora, Florida, was taking pictures of clinic patients' personally identifiable information with her cell phone and selling it for $100 each without the knowledge or permission of the patients.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login