

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 12. June 11, 2020

US Environmental Protection Agency issues final rule on Clean Water Act Section 401

A final rule, issued by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on June 1, is meant to clarify, accelerate and streamline the permit process for energy infrastructure, pursuant to the Trump administration's drive to promote the energy industry.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login