Run towards something

---

by Gerry Zack

Inspiration for this month's column comes from our local newspaper in the Twin Cities, the StarTribune, in a column by Ross Levin.<sup>[1]</sup> Levin discusses the psychological distinction between running towards something versus running from something. He discusses this in the context of planning for retirement; however, as I read it, I realized a very real parallel in how compliance professionals (and probably many other professionals) approach their work.
