

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 14. July 23, 2020

India bans multiple Chinese apps

By Sascha Matuszak

Following a deadly clash between Indian and Chinese forces along the Himalayan border area,^[1] India's government decided on June 29 to ban 59 Chinese apps. The Indian Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology issued a news release^[2] explaining that the apps were engaged in activities that threatened India's national sovereignty and were therefore banned under Section 69A of the Information Technology Act.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login