Don't be afraid

By Gerry Zack, CCEP, CFE, CIA

A recent issue of SCCE's Corporate Compliance Weekly News contained a link to a startling report I was not previously familiar with. An investigation by the U.S. Coast Guard found numerous instances of sexual assault spanning many years.^[1] However, in the aftermath of the investigation, senior leaders decided not to voluntarily report the findings to Congress, instead waiting several years until being forced to do so.
