A compliance oversight checklist for boards

by Betsy Wade

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General's (OIG) recently updated General Compliance Program Guidance (GCPG) reinforces healthcare boards prior direction that was published regarding governing bodies' compliance oversight role.^[1]

The GCPG cites both the U.S. Sentencing Commission^[2] and OIG's Practical Guidance for Health Care Boards on Compliance Oversight.^[3] Here is a checklist for compliance officers and boards that will help them assess whether their compliance oversight responsibilities are meeting the government's expectations. The governing body should:
