

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 15. August 06, 2020

China imposes sanctions on Lockheed Martin and US Sens. Marco Rubio and Ted Cruz

By Sascha Matuszak

On July 13, Chinese foreign ministry announced sanctions against several United States officials^[1] in response to U.S. pressure regarding alleged forced labor and violation of human rights in China's northwest province of Xinjiang. The following day, the foreign ministry announced sanctions against Lockheed Martin Corporation^[2] for selling arms to Taiwan.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login