

Do the Right Thing: A Federally-Qualified Health Center's Response to a Randomized Audit by the Office of Inspector General

Robyn M. Hoffmann, Corporate Compliance Officer and QI Liaison, Fair Haven Community Health Clinic, Inc..

October 27, 2020

- Provide an overview of the goals of the Health Resources and Services Administration's Access Increases in Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (AIMS) award of $200 million in supplemental funding to Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) in 09/17
- Describe one FQHC's approach in coordinating its response to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) randomized audit of AIMS grantees in May 2019
- Outline the lessons learned by the FQHC at the close of the OIG's on-site audit and the anticipated timeline for the OIG's release of its final report

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase