

Compliance Today – January 2021 Physician sentenced to prison for fraud that led to deaths

By Sascha Matuszak

A Houston-area physician was sentenced to seven years in prison for healthcare fraud that resulted in the deaths of multiple patients due to opioid overdoses, as well as the death of an entire family in a car accident involving one of the patients.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login