

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 2, Number 14. August 01, 2019

Turkey removed from F-35 program, may face US sanctions

By Sascha Matuszak

Ellen Lord, United States Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition and Sustainment, announced on July 17 that Turkey would be removed from the Joint Strike Fighter Program by March 2020. Turkey's removal comes after the country's purchase of a Russian anti-aircraft defense system, the S-400.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login