

Creating Great Compliance Training in a Digital World About the Author

Kirsten Liston, CCEP, has been creating comprehensive compliance and ethics solutions for complex, global companies since 2000. She is passionate about creating programs and products that genuinely reach employees and change cultures. As Founder and Principal at Rethink Compliance, she and her team create compelling content to support stronger, more effective compliance programs. She is a magna cum laude graduate of Carleton College, a certified compliance and ethics professional, and a highly-engaging speaker. Her articles have been published in Compliance & Ethics, Compliance & Ethics Professional, Compliance Week, and Directors and Boards.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login