

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 2, Number 16. August 29, 2019

Canadian Supreme Court releases documents related to case against Huawei and CFO Meng Wanzhou

By Sascha Matuszak

In an unusual development, the British Columbia Supreme Court released hundreds of pages of documents detailing the process leading up to the arrest of Huawei CFO Meng Wanzhou, and the case for her extradition to the United States. The documents — released to accredited media on a flash drive available at the courthouse — reveal irregularities in how Ms. Meng was arrested that could help her avoid extradition.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login