

Compliance Today – November 2019 Telemedicine company owner pleads guilty

On September 6, 2019, the US Department of Justice announced in a press release, “The owner and chief executive officer (CEO) of a telemedicine company pleaded guilty today for his role in one of the largest health care fraud schemes ever investigated by the FBI and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of the Inspector General and prosecuted by the Department of Justice, which resulted in charges in April 2019 against 24 defendants.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login