A new SCCE & HCCA for the future

by Gerry Zack

The recent changes you've seen at SCCE & HCCA are all part of preparing for the future, and more changes are on the way. We are positioning SCCE & HCCA to continue being the leader in serving the healthcare compliance profession and the broader compliance community for many years to come. It's an investment we firmly believe in, and one I'm confident will please you.

The modernization of our association really began several years ago with the building of COSMOS, our digital publishing platform, which has had numerous enhancements over the last couple of years. Then, in 2023, we implemented a new association management system through which we serve our members. This was a complicated and challenging implementation, but it will pay off through numerous efficiencies and better ways of serving you.
