

CEP Magazine – November 2020 The politics of ethics

By Gerry Zack

Please feel free to contact me anytime to share your thoughts: +1 612.357.1544 (cell), +1 952.567.6215 (direct), gerry.zack@corporatecompliance.org.

- twitter.com/gerry_zack
- linkedin.com/in/gerryzack

Election day in the US is occurring right around the time you're reading this. And throughout the world, we've witnessed the continuation of a troubling trend that's been growing for several years: the misuse of the word "ethics" when discussing political issues. People have called out politicians for unethical behavior for years, but we all bring over our biases when we do so.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login