

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 22. November 12, 2020 World Bank debars Berky GmbH in connection with corruption in Myanmar

By Sascha Matuszak

The World Bank announced Nov. 4 a two-and-a-half-year debarment of Berky GmbH for alleged corrupt practices involving the Ayeyarwady Integrated River Basin Management Project in Myanmar. According to the news release,^[1] Berky GmbH colluded to win the bid using a subsidiary and bribed officials with payments and trips to Europe.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login